NEW YORK CATILE MARKETS,

There were no live hogs for sale and the feeling sely sustained.

GRAIN AND PROVISIONS.

A SOFT MARKET FOR BREADSTUFFS, BUT MEAT PRODUCIS WELL SUSTAINED.

BY TELEGRAPH TO THE HERALD. CHICAGO, Ill., Jan. 14, 1891.—Wheat broke sharply toward the close to-day and at the end of the session was lower. Its bewed considerable firmness during the greater part of the session and for a long time held above yesterday's close. Later in the day persistent selling started a break, and early buyers tried to unload; the demand roving meagre, there was a sharp decline, and at the tlose May was ide, lower than last night. Opening sales were at 9636c, then sold at 964c, sparingly, but became rere at 96%c., then sold at 96%c. sparingly, but became scire and strong on favorable news and good buying. Silling to 97%c. but near the close it broke to 60%c., dosing at that bid. The feeling at the close was weak. Preselling was the cause of the break. Carl was quiet, and during the greater part of the session raied steady, but fairly firm, but became quiet later and seld off. May closing about 5c. lower than yesteriny the firmer tone which prevailed in what during the art's rading and the very moderate receipts belief to fraughten corn. There were also some strong features in the now. Cables were firm, and the alipments from he siven points exceeded the receipts. This seemed to these the selling, and while there was not nucle trigging to the demand prices showed some early strength. May open at 25%c. when wheat began to brisk corn followed, and sold at 52%c. a 52%c., closing $5.52%c. sallers.

ings were not at all large, the bears seeming to do, owing to the strong market in the face go hog arrivais. Europe and the East are buy-to be delivered all ains; the coming six identity because they believe in the property prices. May pork opened at $10.00, and to not closed at $11. Lard sold from $6.27% to sing at $8.00. Ribs sold at $5.52% a $5.57% eing $5.55.
